The Greatest Gift of All

I wonder what your earliest Christmas memories are? I remember finding a Tressy doll, in my mum's wardrobe, that I had asked Father Christmas for. Whenever my parents weren't looking, I would sneak up and play with it and then carefully put it back into the box hoping they wouldn't notice. All was well until I broke it! I stuffed it back into the box quick as a flash and had to feign surprise when I opened it up on Christmas Day. Mum was very annoyed that the toy shop had given her a broken doll, it was many years before I confessed my misdemeanour.

At Christmas many people get themselves into a lot of debt trying to buy the presents that they think will show their love to their friends and family. Then spend all year trying to rebuild their bank balance. The TV presenter and money expert Martin Lewis recently caught the imagination of his viewers by suggesting that they have a Christmas of promises of services instead of presents. It reminded me of a story I heard a while ago:

Christmas was coming soon, and Beth wanted to give Christmas gifts to her family to show them how much she loved them. But Beth didn't have any money. Beth thought she wouldn't be able to give any gifts, and she felt very sad. Then Beth remembered that her Primary teacher had told the class that some of the best gifts are gifts that money can't buy. Beth decided to give gifts of service.

Beth made a card for every member of her family, and on each card she wrote something that she would do for that family member. On her younger sister's card she wrote that she would play a game that her sister liked. On her older brother's card she wrote that she would wash the dishes one night when it was his turn. For her mother she promised to watch the baby while Mother took a nap, and for her father she promised to help work in the garden. Her favourite gift was for her grandfather: she promised to give him a big hug first thing every morning for a month.

On Christmas morning Beth gave her gifts to her family. Everyone liked Beth's gifts of service. They knew Beth loved them because she gave them such wonderful gifts.

What a lovely way to really show your love for someone. It is easy to forget the reason we give gifts at this time of year. I feel so happy when I give someone a present that I have made or something I know will mean a lot to them. But Jesus Christ is the greatest gift our Heavenly Father has given us. This is because Jesus has helped us return to live with Him and our Heavenly Father someday, by giving His life for us. And just as our Heavenly Father showed His love for us by sending Jesus to the earth, we can show our love for others by giving them special gifts, but they don't have to cost a fortune.

Jesus Christ is our Saviour, the greatest gift we can have this Christmas.

Blessings Revd. Carmel Gittens

News from Alne Church

After the long dry summer, the current cold, rainy weather comes as a bit of a shock! Hopefully the difficult news about the prolonged negotiations at home and natural disasters abroad will come to an end; so we will all be able to enjoy Christmas with our families and friends.

Restoration Project

We are hopeful that the work will commence during late November. It is now understood that apart from minor exceptions, the roof will remain sealed so the church will not be open to the winter weather! Most of our Sunday services, as well as Christingle and Christmas Day, will continue at the church during the repair work.

Remembrance Day 11 11 18

The Remembrance Day Service – on the Centenary of the end of the First World War - was well attended and as usual we remembered the many men of Alne Parish who died in both wars. This display for PEACE was made by Tricia Mitchell using woollen poppies made by Tricia, Marion Roberts and others. It reinforced the message of peace that was given by the Revd Peter Bowes during the service.

Christingle – 4.00p.m. Christmas Eve

Join us for this wonderful service at St Mary's Church, Alne! Please note that hospitality at the Village Hall starts after the service at 5.00p.m.

CHRISTMAS DAY - 10.30a.m.

Alne WI - Doorstops and Notice boards

For our October meeting we welcomed Charlotte Smith. Her hobby of making doorstops in the shape of animals, (she brought dogs, rabbits and owls) has grown and now she sells them, she makes 100+ for Christmas alone. Initially she took her patterns from the internet, but found them unsatisfactory and began making her own. The best material is heavy curtaining, tweed is very popular at the moment, and they are stuffed with sharp sand. We were each given a pattern to make a dog and bring it along to our Christmas Dinner, the best will win a prize. Easier for many of us were the notice boards, covered with various fabrics and ribbons. Charlotte provided materials and tools and many members made their own. It was such a successful evening that members just didn't want to go home.

Our programme is on www.alnevillage.co.uk and on the notice board in the Village Hall. If anything interests you do come along as a visitor, you will have a lively, enjoyable evening.

JUMBLE SALE

We would like to thank everyone who helped, especially Joan, Jenny and Marion, and all those who came to buy, making the Sale a success and raising £260.

Volunteers to establish an Alne Open Gardens Day

Where I have previously lived I participated in an Open Gardens Day, where a number of local people opened their gardens for the public to look around and teas were available in the village hall. I know there are lots of attractive and interesting gardens around our village, and if, like me, you enjoy gardening, and are curious to see other neighbours' gardens, this could become an annual event for the village.

For it to be viable, we ideally need half a dozen people to agree to open their garden for an afternoon, probably on a Sunday in early summer, when the gardens will look their best. Gardens do not need to be large, but should have some interest. It provides motivation to get your garden looking neat and tidy, and allows others to see and appreciate the beauty of your plot.

A map can be produced showing the trail of Open Gardens through the village, with each garden having a clear sign outside the front to make it obvious.

The event can also be used as a fund raiser for the Village Hall and afternoon teas can be offered. It will provide a welcome new event for the community, a chance to enjoy visiting and appreciating village gardens, and I would be happy to help co-ordinate such an event.

This can only happen if at least a handful of us are willing to open up our garden for the day. If fellow gardeners in the village would like to be involved in establishing this event then please contact David Lepper on 01347 838114 or via e-mail at d.lepper27@btinternet.com.

We can set up a meeting early in the New Year to discuss how it will work, agree arrangements and fix a date for the event. There will then be plenty of time to get your gardens in tip top form.

Alne Oil Co-operative

Founder member of the Lower Swale Syndicate of Oil Co-operatives

 Happy Christmas to all our Members

Tate Oil is closed to Co-operative orders for delivery during December and will re-open in January 2019 (our agreement with Tate is designed to encourage ordering outside their busiest period).

If you need oil in the meantime, you can order in the usual way, but the price will be the prevailing market price, not the discounted Co-operative price available for the other 11 months of the year.

You can place an order during December for January delivery, but please make it clear that your order is for delivery in January.

Members can order at any time (January to November) — Tate has undertaken to deliver within 10 working days from order. The price charged will be that applying on the delivery date.

If not a Member, why not join? You will undoubtedly save money by comparison with your existing supplier and Tate's service has been outstanding!

The Alne Oil Co-operative is a founder member of the Lower Swale Syndicate of Oil Co-operatives. Collectively, nearly 1,000 Syndicate members purchase between 1.5 and 2 million litres of heating oil annually.

Membership is open to all — if you live in or around Alne and want to know more about the Co-operative, please e-mail alne@swaleoil.org.uk or visit the Oil Co-operative pages on the Alne Village website.

Tollerton Village Hall

Thank you to all that came to the Chilli hoe down in October. It was a fantastic evening for all, raising over £500 towards the costs of running the Village Hall. Shall we do it again next year - let us know? Thank you to Yvonne and the committee for organising a fantastic event.

Please come along to the Christmas fair on Saturday, 15th December, 1.00-4.00p.m. Free entry, cake and mince pies, Christmas cakes from around the world, mulled wine and craft stalls to browse. At 3.00p.m. we will be entertained by Alne singers, bringing a festive atmosphere. Come early as the focus will be on the singing at 3.00p.m. onwards. There will be a collection to support the choir. Don't miss it, this is going to be awesome!

Mondays at 1.30 – 3.30p.m. - Cake, A Cuppa and a Chat

Banish those Winter Blues, bring along a friend, games and hobbies etc. Let's brighten up winter with friends and conversation.

Thanks to support from the Parish Council, we have a new group starting to meet in the Village Hall on a Monday afternoon, from 1.30 'til 3.30p.m. Open to everyone, just pop in for tea, cake, biscuits and companionship, and enjoy the warmth. No need to book, just turn up. As we move closer to Christmas and all it stands for, if you know of someone that may be sat at home alone, please give them a call and bring them down. ALL ARE WELCOME. Hope to see you there!

Brunch Club

Sunday 20th January 2019 will be our next Brunch Club. Please make a note in your diary and come on down. Usual times, 10.30a.m. 'til 1.30p.m. All are welcome.

Bard of Barnsley

Don't forget we have the Bard of Barnsley coming on Friday, 29th March. Tickets will be available soon, but will be limited. Look out for more information closer to the time.

Tollerton Bowls Club

Wednesday evenings are the bowls club get together in Tollerton Village Hall. We are always keen for new members. If you would like to come and enjoy something new, and make new friends, come down; or you can call Margaret on 01347 844087 for more information.

Tollerton Sports and Recreation Club

Thank you to everyone for your patience. The climbing frame has now been completely overhauled and is back in use. About 95% of the wood has been replaced, making it as good as new. The total cost for this so far has come to £974.82. Thank you to the Parish Council who has provided the funds to pay for this and also the cost of replacing the wooden fence that surrounds this. Over the next few weeks, we should see this happen.

I am currently waiting to hear if we have been successful obtaining a grant from Councillor Peter Sowray, which will cover the cost of replacing all the chipped bark under the climbing frame. This will cost £576 and when completed, will give it a new lease of life and last another decade or more.

I am currently in discussions around funding to replace the swings, so I'm very hopeful that we will see these replaced over the next few months. When completed, we shall be concentrating on further equipment and enhancements to the play space.

Please note that dogs are not allowed on the playing field in the interests of hygiene. Recently there has been an increase in reports from dissatisfied users. This area is purely for sport and many children play there.

Tollerton Tennis

Please feel free to come on down and play tennis. An honesty box is provided to pay and play. Details can be found on the notice board about the club; we are always keen for new members.

Carol Singing Around Tollerton

All being well, we shall be out Carol singing around the village on Friday, 14th December. Meeting on the green at 6.30p.m. and eventually ending up in the pub some time later. Please come and join us, the more the merrier. This is our only fundraising event and all money raised goes towards running the playing field. All support is gratefully received.

Tollerton Church

If you see a blackboard on the top step at Tollerton Church, then you will know that the Church is open, and you are very welcome to come in for prayer, contemplation or quiet time. A member of the church will be in the building, but there will be no formal service taking place.

Pub Quiz Night

Don't forget the bi-weekly quiz in the Black Horse, Tollerton. Always an education, but ultimately a fun quiz that raises money for good causes, kindly hosted by Margaret. With a start time of 9.00p.m., the next quiz night is Tuesday, 27th November, then Tuesday, 11th December.

Don't forget there are many details about all things Tollerton on the village website, Tollerton.net<<http://Tollerton.net>> and various Facebook pages.

Love reading but can't get to the library?

NYCC and Easingwold Community Library offer a free service for people of all ages who, because of ill health or disability, find it difficult to get to the library or carry books. The service is also available to carers.

Our volunteers will select books to suit the customer's tastes and they can either be collected from the library by a friend or relative or we can deliver directly to the customer every two weeks. Our delivery volunteers are all DBS checked and cover Easingwold and all the surrounding villages. We offer free access to books (including large print and children's), audio books, DVDs, music on CD and information.

Users can opt in and out so can use the service if they are recovering from an illness or operation or can't get out in bad weather.

Know someone who may be interested?

To find out more please ask the potential customer or a representative to contact Easingwold Community Library on 01609 534584 (rings directly to Easingwold Library) and leave their name and contact telephone number. Someone will telephone back and arrange a visit to explain how to use the service and to find out what sort of books or other materials are required.

We are always looking for volunteers to help with deliveries, particularly to help cover holiday periods. Please contact Easingwold Library and leave your details if you would like more information.
